This year has marked another challenging step for us all. ICAD 2020, organized in partnership between the Dermatological Society of Thailand (DST) and EuroMediCom, still maintains its role and ambition in sharing knowledges and expertise in medical aesthetics for the Asian medical community.

In light of the ever evolving global situation, we are pleased to announce that this year's version of ICAD will be integrated with the world's largest international virtual meeting specializing in anti-aging and aesthetics medicine: AMWC GLOBAL - The Hybrid Edition on November 5-6-7, 2020.

Live from Monaco and accessible across the globe, AMWC Global is a cost-efficient way to attend ICAD from the safety of your home. Access ICAD's high-level scientific agenda on 6-7 November streamed live on our new immersive virtual platform.

This Edition will also include advanced, AI-driven networking features available to all participants, as well as a full exhibition with all the industry's leading and up and coming brands.

Take full advantage of our virtual platform to meet exhibitors and attend their workshops online. Take part to explore all possibilities from this exceptional experience.
